

Broadband over power line technology should not be implemented until comprehensive testing has proven it will not cause spurious interference to users of the HF spectrum.

Kenneth Widelitz, K6LA